marked for the project, in addition to the $5 million raised in the capital campaign.

Hospice has no plans for further capital campaigns in the near future, Lopane said.

Hospice provides services to about half of the people who die each year in Lancaster County.

In addition to the care services, Hospice's PATHways Center for Grief & Loss at the Mount Joy building will launch its annual "Coping with the Holidays" series on Tuesday with "Where to Begin." The series runs through Jan. 4. To register, call the center at 391-2413 or 733-0699.

The annual Light Up a Life tree lighting will be held at 6:30 p.m. Dec. 1. at Essa Flory Hospice Center.

Holiday Hearts gathering for children and families is set for 4 p.m. Dec. 12 at PATHways Center.

All programs are free and open to all community members.
